VOL. 1

LAUREL, MISS., OCT. 25, 1926

No. 32

New Store Opens Doors

Mr. A. White, well known citizen of this city calls the public attention to the opening of his new store on Crawford Street between 8th and 9th Avenues, in the Wausau section of Bonton.

He solicits your patronage and would that you come around and see what he is doing. You can not miss the place; only four blocks from Wausau car line and about two blocks from Ellisville car line on Crawford St. You will lose money if you fail to come to White's Grocery Co.

St. Elmore Calls Pastor

A great meeting of the members of St. Elmore last Monday night marked a great change of things around the church. All seemed to have been in good cheer and working order. After the roll call and other business, Rev. J. Reynolds called the meeting to order, after which a long line of debaters and coating around, Rev. Carter was re-elected indefinitely.

Miss Eliza Brooks of Birmingham, is visiting her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Epp Morris, on Third Avenue Second Baptist. z

The Spanish walker is in town, Uncle Bim has his eyes on him in full. He is the town's talk. The Ball head rambler is on the job again.

Noted Evangelist in City

The citizens of Laurel are proud to have in their midst a young woman coming out of Tennessee bringing a special message to our people.

Last week she appeared at Allen Chapel in Kingston with crowded house every night. This week at Rev Cook's church on South Fourth, unfolding the scripture.

Her hearers seemed to be pleased with her message.

We pray that she may grow stronger in the works for the Master.

WATCH WORK AND PRAY BY FARMER JIM

The only way I see now for my people during this critical moment, is to work and pray.

We fail most all the time because we fail to work, work with whole mind and strength.

The First thing out, we must know what we are working for and why we are working for that particular. We have been watching without working or working without watching and praying without working. To succeed, I have found it to be true that the three must be placed in action.

To my other good farmers, why I can talk I have watched, worked and prayed and still on top of the world.

QUEENSBURG SCHOOL FINISHES FIRST MONTH

The school at Queensburg, under the direction of Prof Polk and Mrs. Reid is still moving on. The students

South Side Notes

Friday after noon October 15th, was a gala day as far as literary abilities were concerned. The students of the library were greatly favored by literary production from great authors, with representatives from grades 6, 7, 8, and 9th. Not only did they carry us back to time of Tinnison etc. but, Bethoven and Listz were awoken in some beautiful musical selections.

The birth of the Library Ledger, and the weekly stars newspaper gotten out entirely by the competent staff, members of the eighth grade class was more than a treat. The reports from each were read by their efficient editors, Mr. William Andrews and Miss Elmanora Davis. Each Friday we will be favored with such programs. The public is cordially invited and especially do we urge the parents to come. Each Friday afternoon beginning at 2 p.m.

have a good spirit, which is shown by their hard work and hearty cooperation with the teachers. And we feel safe to say that the citizens of Laurel, as a whole are now thinking of the school as an institution not for one section of the city, but for Laurel. All Laurel is turned toward Queensburg, and should be. The school and community plan when fully worked out, will be the making of a new epoch in the forward march of our people. No such plan has ever been carried so far yet. And every Negro in the State should sit up and take notice, and be ready to do his bit and thereby reap the good to be derived therefrom. The contractors are now grading the new streets, and parks and beautiful lots are being laid off. Everything is working in perfect harmony, may it remain so. Let us all be ready and waiting to do our share
